

Waiter: Good evening! Welcome to our restaurant. How may I help you today?

John: Hi there! We're excited to try your food. Can you recommend something (sam fin) for starters?

Waiter: Certainly! Our garlic bread and caesar salad are quite popular. They're light and tasty. Would you like to start with one of those?

Emily: That sounds good. We'll go with the garlic bread, please.

Waiter: Great choice! And for your main course, we have a variety of options. Are you in the mood for something specific?

Mood - humor

In the mood - estar afim, estar com humor pra fazer aquilo.

John: Hmm, do you have any recommendations for pasta dishes?

Waiter: Absolutely! Our chicken Alfredo and spaghetti Bolognese are both delicious. They're customer favorites.

Emily: I love Alfredo! I'll have the chicken Alfredo, please.

Waiter: Excellent! And for you, sir?

John: I'll go with the spaghetti Bolognese. Sounds perfect.

Waiter: Wonderful choices! Anything else I can (ken) assist you with? Qualquer coisa "a mais"?

Emily: Could you recommend a dessert? Something sweet to finish our food.
Dessert - sobremesa
Sweet - doce.

Waiter: Of course! Our tiramisu and brownie are popular dessert options.
Either of those (doz) catch your interest?

Either of those catch your interest - Algum desses pegou seu interesse?

You are - você é

They are - eles são

John: Tiramisu sounds delightful. We'll share a serving of that (dét)

Waiter: Sounds like a fantastic meal!

I'll get your order in right away.

Au gét

Yór órder

raitchauei

If you need anything else or have dietary preferences, feel free to let me know.

Sounds like - parece como/ parece tipo

A fantastic meal - uma refeição fantástica

John: Thank you! We're looking forward to it.

Looking forward = estar animado com algo no futuro.